COUNT IX (CIVIL CONSPIRACY - PBMs)

726. Warrick reasserts and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

727. Warrick is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations in paragraph 727.

728. To the extent that the allegations in paragraph 728 refer to parties other than Warrick, Warrick is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations in paragraph 728. Warrick otherwise denies the allegations in paragraph 728.

729. The allegations in paragraph 729 of the Amended Master Complaint state legal conclusions as to which no answer is required. To the extent that the allegations in paragraph 729 refer to parties other than Warrick, Warrick is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations in paragraph 729. To the extent that an answer is otherwise required, Warrick denies the allegations in paragraph 729.

730-733. The allegations in paragraphs 730 through 733 of the Amended Master Complaint state legal conclusions as to which no answer is required. To the extent that the allegations in paragraphs 730 through 733 refer to parties other than Warrick, Warrick is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations in paragraphs 730 through 733. To the extent that an answer is otherwise required, Warrick denies the allegations in paragraphs 730 through 733.

COUNT X (CIVIL CONSPIRACY - TOGETHER RX)

734-741. The allegations contained in paragraphs 734 through 741 refer to parties other than Warrick. To the extent the allegations contained in paragraphs 734 through 741 are deemed to include allegations against Warrick, Warrick denies the allegations.

UNNUMBERED PARAGRAPH AND REQUEST FOR JURY TRIAL

Warrick denies the allegations contained in the unnumbered paragraph following paragraph 741 and opposes all relief requested therein.

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

Without assuming the burden of proof of such defenses that it would not otherwise have, Warrick asserts the following defenses:

First Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class fail to state a claim against Warrick upon which relief may be granted.

Second Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the political question and separation of powers doctrines.

Third Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the filed rate doctrine.

Fourth Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class have not suffered, and will not suffer, any injury to a legally protected or cognizable interest by reason of the conduct of Warrick as alleged in the AMCC.

Fifth Defense

To the extent Plaintiffs and/or any member of the putative class obtain recovery in any other case predicated on the same factual allegations, that Plaintiff or purported class member is barred from seeking recovery against Warrick based on the AMCC pursuant to the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel and the prohibition on double recovery for the same injury.

Sixth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution and the analogous provisions of the Constitutions of the States of California, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Louisiana, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas, Washington and any other States whose laws are or become relevant in the course of this multidistrict litigation.

Seventh Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the Noerr-Pennington doctrine to the extent that such claims are premised, in whole or in part, on alleged statements or conduct by Warrick in judicial, legislative or administrative proceedings of any kind or at any level of government.

Eighth Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that Plaintiffs and the putative class members have released, settled, entered into an accord and satisfaction, or otherwise compromised their claims.

Ninth Defense

Any and all actions taken by Warrick with respect to any of the matters alleged in the AMCC were taken in good faith and in accordance with established industry practice.

Tenth Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class' state law claims are preempted, in whole or in part, by federal law, including without limitation the Federal Employment Retirement Income and Security Act of 1974, the Federal Medicare Act, and the Federal Medicaid Act, including all amendments to the same and all regulations promulgated thereunder.

Eleventh Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims are preempted by the dormant Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution.

Twelfth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims against Warrick are barred because Warrick has complied with all applicable regulations of the federal and state governments.

Thirteenth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitations and repose and by the doctrines of laches, estoppel, and waiver.

Fourteenth Defense

Warrick's statements or actions were not the proximate cause or cause in fact of any injury to or alleged loss by Plaintiffs or the putative class.

Fifteenth Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class fail to state with particularity facts to support the fraud allegations, and fail to plead with particularity the fraudulent concealment and multi-source medicine allegations against Warrick contained in the AMCC.

Sixteenth Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class fail to allege with particularity their civil conspiracy claims against Warrick as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 9(b).

Seventeenth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, because Warrick did not make any false statements to Plaintiffs or to any members of the putative class members. As to any statement asserted against Warrick that Plaintiffs and the putative class allege to be false or misleading, Warrick had no reasonable grounds to believe, and did not believe at the time such a statement was made, that the statement was false or misleading.

Eighteenth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' RICO claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, due to Plaintiffs' failure to properly allege a RICO enterprise as required by 18 U.S.C. § 1962(c).

Nineteenth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' RICO claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, due to their failure to plead facts showing that Warrick and the PBMs are ongoing organizations whose members function as a continuing unit and share common purposes as required by United States v. Turkette, 452 U.S. 576, 583 (1981).

Twentieth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' RICO claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, due to their failure to allege that Warrick conducted the affairs of the alleged enterprises as required by 18 U.S.C. § 1962(c).

Twenty-First Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class lack standing to bring their RICO claims against Warrick because they cannot show Warrick directly caused their alleged injuries as required by 18 U.S.C. § 1964(c) and Holmes v. Securities Investor Prot. Corp., 503 U.S. 258, 265-66, 268 (1992).

Twenty-Second Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' civil conspiracy claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, by their failure to allege a concerted action as required by Aetna Cas. Sur. Co. v. P&B Autobody, 43 F.3d 1546, 1564 (1st Cir. 1994) and Grant v. John Hancock Mut. Life Ins. Co., 183 F. Supp. 2d 344, 359 (D. Mass. 2002), and/or by their failure to allege a coercive conspiracy as required by Fleming v. Dance, 22 N.E.2d 609, 611 (Mass. 1939).

Twenty-Third Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' civil conspiracy claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, because they are duplicative and improper under Massachusetts law. See Grant, 183 F. Supp. 2d at 364.

Twenty-Fourth Defense

Warrick denies that Plaintiffs and the putative class have valid consumer protection claims against Warrick under California, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Louisiana, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas, Washington or any other State whose law is or becomes relevant in the course of this multidistrict litigation. However, if such claims are found to exist, Warrick pleads all available defenses under the Acts.

Twenty-Fifth Defense

To the extent that Plaintiffs and the putative class members attempt to seek equitable relief against Warrick, they are not entitled to such relief because they have an adequate remedy at law.

Twenty-Sixth Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class lack standing to bring their asserted consumer protection claims against Warrick under certain state consumer protection laws, including without limitation those of Delaware, Florida, Louisiana, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Washington.

Twenty-Seventh Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class did not rely on the allegedly fraudulent statements or conduct of Warrick as required under certain state consumer protection laws, including without limitation those of New York and Pennsylvania.

Twenty-Eighth Defense

Any allegedly fraudulent statement or conduct of Warrick was not consumer-oriented as required under certain consumer protection law, including without limitation that of New York.

Twenty-Ninth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims against Warrick for injunctive relief were mooted by the passage of the 2003 Medicare reform legislation.

Thirtieth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims for injunctive relief against Warrick are barred by the doctrines of in pari delicto and/or unclean hands.

Thirty-First Defense

This action cannot be maintained as a class action because (1) the certification and maintenance of this action as a class would violate the separation of powers provisions of the United States Constitution and would be an unconstitutional usurpation of authority reserved to the legislative branch; (2) the claims of Plaintiffs and the putative class cannot be properly joined with one another because they did not arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences; (3) the named Plaintiffs and the putative class cannot satisfy the procedural requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23; (4) the questions of fact at issue are not common to the alleged class, but rather, are highly specific and will vary dramatically from person to person and entity to entity; and/or (5) class certification would violate Warrick's rights provided by the Fifth, Seventh and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution as well as by the Constitutions of the States of California, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Louisiana, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas, Washington and any other States whose laws are or become relevant in the course of this multidistrict litigation, including but not limited to Warrick's right to procedural and substantive safeguards, which include traditional defenses to liability.

Thirty-Second Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' antitrust claims against Warrick under the various state consumer protection and consumer fraud statutes are barred in whole or in part to the extent those statutes (1) do not allow (or did not allow at the time the conduct was alleged herein) recovery of damages by indirect purchasers; and (2) do not govern conduct that is predominantly intrastate in nature.

Thirty-Third Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, due to their failure to join indispensable parties.

Thirty-Fourth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, because they have suffered no damages as a result of the matters alleged in the AMCC.

Thirty-Fifth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because any injuries sustained by Plaintiffs or the putative class were the result of intervening or superceding conduct of third parties.

Thirty-Sixth Defense

Plaintiffs' and the putative class' claims against Warrick for damages are barred, in whole or in part, (1) because they failed to mitigate their damages, and their failure to mitigate damages should proportionately reduce the recovery of such persons and the allocation of any fault, if any exists, attributable to Warrick; (2) because they would be unjustly enriched if allowed to recover any portion of the damages alleged in the AMCC; (3) by the doctrine of consent and/or ratification to the extent that plaintiffs and/or putative class members have received and paid for medicines manufactured, marketed and sold by Warrick after the filing of Plaintiffs' original Complaint; and (4) because they are speculative and remote and because of the impossibility of ascertaining and allocating those alleged damages.

Thirty-Seventh Defense

Warrick is entitled to a set-off, should any damages be awarded against it, for the entire amount of all damages or settlement amounts recovered by Plaintiffs and/or the putative class, with respect to the same alleged injuries.

Thirty-Eighth Defense

Any damages recovered by the Plaintiffs and the putative class from Warrick must be limited by the applicable statutory ceilings on recoverable damages.

Thirty-Ninth Defense

Plaintiffs and the putative class fail to allege facts or a cause of action against Warrick sufficient to support a claim for attorneys' fees, treble damages and/or legal fees.

Fortieth Defense

To the extent punitive damages are sought, Plaintiffs' and the putative class' punitive damages claims against Warrick: (1) have no basis in law or fact; (2) are not recoverable because the allegations of the AMCC are legally insufficient to support a claim for punitive damages against Warrick; (3) cannot be sustained because laws regarding the standards for determining liability for and the amount of punitive damages fail to give Warrick prior notice of the conduct for which punitive damages may be imposed and the severity of the penalty that may be imposed and are void for vagueness in violation of Warrick's due process rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitutions and the constitutions of any applicable states' laws; (4) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages exceeding the limits authorized by the laws or other comparable laws would violate Warrick's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the constitutions, common law and applicable states' laws; (5) cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages in this case, combined with any prior, contemporaneous, or subsequent judgments against Warrick for punitive damages arising from the design, development, manufacture, fabrication, distribution, supply, marketing, sale, or use of Warrick's medicines would constitute impermissible multiple punishments for the same wrong, in violation of Warrick's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would constitute double jeopardy in violation of the constitutions, common law and statutory law of any applicable states' laws; (6) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages without the apportionment of the award separately and severally between or among the alleged joint tortfeasors, as determined by the alleged percentage of the wrong committed by each alleged tortfeasor, would violate Warrick's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the constitutions, common law and public policies of any applicable states' law; and (7) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages, which are penal in nature, without according Warrick the same protections that are accorded to all criminal defendants, including the protection against unreasonable searches and seizures, the privilege against self-incrimination, and the rights to confront adverse witnesses, a speedy trial, and the effective assistance of counsel, would violate Warrick's rights guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Amendment as incorporated into the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the constitutions, common law, and public policies of any applicable states' laws.

Forty-First Defense

To the extent punitive damages are sought, Plaintiff's and the putative class' claim for punitive damages against Warrick cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages that is subject to no predetermined limit, such as maximum multiple of compensatory damages or a maximum amount of punitive damages that may be imposed, would: (1) violate Warrick's due process rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution; (2) violate Warrick's right not to be subjected to an excessive award; and (3) be improper under the constitutions, common law and public policies of any applicable states' laws.

Forty-Second Defense

Warrick adopts by reference any additional applicable defense pled by any other defendant not otherwise pled herein.

Forty-Third Defense

Warrick hereby gives notice that it intends to rely upon any other and additional defense that is now or may become available or appear during, or as a result of the discovery proceedings in this action and hereby reserve its right to amend its answer to assert such defense. Warrick also reserves the right to assert such other and related defenses as may become available in the event of a determination that the action, or some part thereof, is governed by the substantive law of a state other than California, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Louisiana, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas, Washington and/or any other State whose law is or becomes relevant in the course of this multidistrict litigation.

WHEREFORE, Warrick prays that this Court:

1. Dismiss the Amended Master Consolidated Class Action Complaint with prejudice and enter judgment in favor of Warrick and against plaintiffs;
2. Award Warrick its costs and expenses; and
3. Grant such other and further relief for Warrick as this Court deems just and proper.
